THE BIG SOUND OF FSHS
ON 1965
THE SWINGIN' STATION
FILER, IDAHO

DEDICATION

It's with great pleasure that the Filer High School yearbook staff dedicates our book to a teacher whose unceasing help and understanding have guided us to know the true meaning of our education. Her strong, unselfish character has been an inspiration to us, and she has won the respect and admiration of all her pupils. In appreciation for her many hours of toil in our behalf, we proudly honor — Mrs. Hughes.

CLASS WILL

- I, Sandy Abel, do will and bequeath my enjoyment as Pep Club president.
- I, Linda Adam, do will and bequeath nothing to nobody, because I don't have anything that would help anyone.
- I, Jerry Allen, do will and bequeath the first chair of the Senior Band Trombone section to anyone dumb enough to take it.
- We, Marvin Anderson and Linda Phinney, do will and bequeath all the bad times the teachers have given us to any other couple who may try to go together in their senior year.
- I, Connie Aslett, do will and bequeath my ability to be absent from Government class to Phillip in hopes he will carry out my fine idea.
- I, Zandra Aslett, do will and bequeath my happiness in my senior year to all juniors who are so fortunate.
- I, Diana Aufderheide, do will and bequeath all the fun times in cheerleading to Nina Wright, and all the fun to my sister, Karen, in hopes she will have as much fun as I did.
- I, John Baker, do will and bequeath my fishing and hunting abilities to anyone who has had as much bad luck as I have had.
- I, Becky Bernardi, do will and bequeath my ability to keep Danny C. for five years to any girl who can accomplish more than I have.
- I, Charla Bingham, do will and bequeath the long nights of studying after a day at school to anyone who can take it.
- I, Janie Blades, do will and bequeath all my fun times in Twin Falls to Vicky Triplett and Jan Graves in hopes they have better luck catching boys next year.
- I, Vic Brunkow, do will and bequeath my ability to play the trumpet to Roy Wright because he will need it.
- I, Nanette Bunce, do will and bequeath all the shaving cream, rotten tomatoes, eggs and cabbages in Filer to Nina Wright, in hopes she will make a bigger mess of the fairgrounds than we did.
- I, Pat Callen, do will and bequeath my ability to laugh out loud to anyone who is also nuttier than a fruit cake.
- I, Darrell Clark, do will and bequeath my ability to skip school and not be caught to anyone who likes fun and adventure.
- I, Greg Clough, do will and bequeath anything not worth giving away to anyone who doesn't need it.
- I, Judy Coats, do will and bequeath the opportunity of trying to keep a study hall quiet to any F. T. A. member with lots of intestinal fortitude.
- I, Ruth Ann Davis, do will and bequeath all of my mischievous times at F. H. S. to Dixie D. and anyone else who thinks they can get away with as much as I did.
- I, Gerald Dean, do will and bequeath anything I have to anyone stupid enough to want it.
- I, Gary Deitrick, do will and bequeath my green Packard to the Junior class in hopes they can use it for an Elliot Ness movie.
- I, Dorinda Kay Dunlap, do will and bequeath all my good times on the good old school bus to Patricia Fields in hopes she makes it to school each morning.
- I, Roger Dutt, do will and bequeath all my school books to Chuck Honstien.
- I, Glenn Fischer, do will and bequeath my two Fords to any junk yard that will have them.
- I, Joyce Ford, do will and bequeath all my fun in high school to Jill Glavin.
- I, Gary Fraley, do will and bequeath my third period class, Mr. Andree's class, to all of the students next year.
- I, Pam Gardner, do will and bequeath being sports editor to Gordon Pedrow, in hopes that he comes through it mentally balanced.
- I, Loyd Garey, do will and bequeath the hard work I put into getting good grades in Mr. Glassinger's classes to all the scholars in Filer High School.
- I, Danny Gasper, do will and bequeath all my grades to my upcoming brothers.
- I, Hal Gines, do will and bequeath my ability to have girls flock all around me to Pat Callen.
- I, Tim Graves, do will and bequeath all the fun times I had hauling hay with John Alvin this summer to anyone who is stupid enough to haul hay with John Alvin.
- We, Kathi Griff, Sue Loughmiller, Shirley Pendergraft, Linda Ulrich, Patricia Lanting, Tami Thornton and Glenda Latimer, do will and bequeath our paint brushes and red-orange fluorescent paint for the Horse-Shu bus to any juniors in hopes that they won't get caught by the State Police like we did. (The first time!)
- I, Lloyd Hardesty, do will and bequeath my office of Key Club President, which I have enjoyed very much, to any Key Clubber who is willing to work hard.
- I, Ruth Haman do will and bequeath all the good times I have had in Twin to Shirley T.
- I, Judy Harding, do will and bequeath my daring nature to Coleen Bingham in hopes she will have the fun in high school that I have had.
- I, Ann Hasch, do will and bequeath my blonde haid to anyone who can afford to keep theirs bleached.
- I, Larry Hepworth, do will and bequeath my "parking spot," the old Homestead, to Linda K. and Steve T.
- I, Cheryle Ingle, do will and bequeath all the frightening times I've had in the ole green Chev. to my sister, Shirley, in hopes that she can keep up my record and not get caught.
- I, Karen Jordan, do will and bequeath all my wonderful high school years to my sister, Susan, in hopes that they will be as memorable to her as they are to me.
- I, Becky Melton, do will and bequeath my jar of honey to anyone who thinks they can get away with all the dirty work that goes along with it; Mary, Janet, Etta, Jo Ann and I did—ALMOST!
- I, Loraine Molsee, do will and bequeath all my hose with runners in them, to my sister, Carol, in hopes she will find some good use for them.
- I, Rita Moore, do will and bequeath all the rowdy, fun times I've had in F. H. S. to Pat Tegan, Nina Wright and Linda Sharp in hopes they handle "situations" better than I.
- I, Kay Murdoff, do will and bequeath my ability to open windows in Mr. G's room to anyone who likes to breathe.
- I, Deanna Parker, do will and bequeath all the good times to Nita, Connie and Linda, in hopes they stay in school as long as I have.
- I, Paulette Patterson, do will and bequeath Filer High School and all the teachers to Dianne R., Margaret S., Janet P., and anyone else who deserves it.
- I, Ruth Pitts, do will and bequeath my shooting ability to anyone who doesn't appreciate his teachers.
- I, Camille Ramsey, do will and bequeath the "community crutches" which I was willed, to Penny Ward and Pat Pedrow because it looks like their own may soon wear out.
- I, Faye Roesler, do will and bequeath my ability to give extemp. speeches on "Duck Hunting" to anyone who can hide embarrassment.
- I, Karen Ruhter, do will and bequeath my cards to anyone who thinks he can play them in physics and trig. and get by with it.
- I, Lanny Ryals, do will and bequeath my "A" average to anyone who loves to study as much as I do.
- I, Richard Schuler, do will and bequeath my scholastic abilities to anyone who needs them.
- I, Terry Shaff, do will and bequeath all my Teen-age Republican Literature to any loyal Freshman, in hopes that they will have better luck in 1968.
- I, Chris Slatte, do will and bequeath my art of flirtation to Lula Martin.
- I, Judi Smith, do will and bequeath my Homecoming Queen Crown to future queens in hopes they will enjoy it as much as I did.
- I, Jo Ann Snelson, do will and bequeath all my fun with an out-of-school boy to Etta Bright in hopes she can do as well.
- I, Charlotte Spaur, do will and bequeath good luck to Hazel Hunt in her senior year.
- I, Ronald Stutzman, do will and bequeath my ability to get lousy grades to anyone stupid enough to want it.
- I, Sandra Taylor, do will and bequeath my government book to Shirley Taylor in hopes that she gets better grades than I did.
- I, Joyce Tegan, do will and bequeath my ability to find excuses to get out of class to Nina Wright, Penny Ward, and Linda Sharp in hopes they get away with it as well as I did.
- I, Ron "Wild One" Theener, do will and bequeath my ability to drive like a maniac to my cousin "Slick" in hopes he will try to run over as many kids as I have.
- I, Mike Touchette, do will and bequeath my four years of varsity football and only lettering once to John Kauffman in hopes he stays out of trouble in the future.
- I, Janet Triplett, do will and bequeath Yearbook ad editor to Connie Kalbfleisch and Mike Graves, who will have it anyway.
- I, Stan Ward, do will and bequeath my long and shaggy hair to Raymond Joslyn in hopes that he will get it cut.
- I, Allen Webster, do will and bequeath my hot machine to my brother, Bob, because he needs wheels.
- I, Darwin Yoder, do will and bequeath my ability to be Student Body President to anyone who is dumb enough to take the job.

APPRECIATION

In behalf of the 1965 Wildcat Staff I would like to take this opportunity to extend my sincerest appreciation to Mrs. Thompson, our capable advisor—to Mr. Pettygrove and Mr. Marita, our patient photographers—to our publishing company, Standard Printing Co.

Here is the book which brings out the spirit of our school in the classrooms, athletics and music. I hope that you, the students of Filer High School, cherish the memories of Filer High School, cherish the memories and recollections that this yearbook holds.

The Wildcat Staff
